

To Whom It May Concern

I feel I have to vent my frustration over what is going on in our area I feel we are sitting on a time bomb, waiting for something else to happen. I would like to have our freedom back

I have so much anger & get so frustrated at times I need to say very hard on both of us When one steps to think of the situation, you wonder just who is to blame

F28

I know my husband must be thinking at times, having his whole life savings tied up in this property & to have it all worth nothing at this stage

He dont know when his cancer could flare up again & it must be weighing heavy on his mind if something was to happen to him, what kind of a situation for his wife to be left in He moved up here from Stratford to enjoy our retirement. The last few years has been anything but peaceful.

For the sake of our community I hope things will be resolved soon.

Yours Truly
